and Paris Gazette, dated May 2.

Rome, April 4. and 7.

THE 29th of last Month, News came from Ferrara, That the Imperial Troops were come upon the Territories of the Church; that they had not only committed great Disorders, and carried off the Cattle and Corn they found; but had made Prisoners several of the Pope's Officers and Soldiers who offer'd to oppose their Violences. The 2d Instant the Congregation of Grace was assembled extraordinarily, to consult what Prisoners should be set at Liberty, as is the annual Custom in the Holy Week. Prince Pamfilio has given 45000 Roman Crowns to several Churches, 10000 to that of the Apostles, 10000 to that of St. Peter, 8000 to that of St. Paul, 10000 to that of St. John de Latran, and the other 7000 to that of St. Peter in Vinculis. 'Tis advis'd from Naples, That an Order from the King is come thither, to the Viceroy, to demand of the Clergy of that Kingdom a Free Gift, to help him to maintain the War against the Enemies of the Roman Catholic Religion. Prince Vaini is return'd hither. Signior Morosini, Ambassador to this Court from the Republick of Venice, has receiv'd Order from his Principals to go no more to the Palace: But to send thither the Secretary of the Embassy to demand the calling in of the Monitories publish'd against his Servants, for attacking the Sbirris, as they were carrying a Malefactor to Prison before the Palace of St. Mark.

Rome, April 11, and 14. On Sunday the 5th of this Month a pontifical Chappel was held in the Vatican; at which the Pope assisted, and perform'd the Ceremony of blessing the Palm-Branches, and distributing them with his own Hands. The 8th his Holyness said Mass in private, and gave the Communion to all his domestick Servants, after he had made a pathetick Exhortation to them. The 9th being Holy Thursday, the Pope accompanied by the sacred College of Cardinals, assisted at the Divine Service of that Day; after which he was carried up to the Gallery over the great Portico of St. Peter's Church, whence he gave his Benediction to the People who stood in Crowds below; the Artillery of the Castle of St. Angelo firing all the while; And going from thence to the Ducal Hall, he wash'd the Feet of 12 poor Priests of different Nations representing the Apostles, serv'd them at Table, gave each of them 2 Medals, one of Gold the other of Silver: 16 Cardinals and the Constable Colonna, who assisted at this Ceremony, staid and din'd in the Palace by his Holiness's Order. On Easter Day the Pope celebrated Mass pontifically in the Church of St. Peter, and according to his Custom pronounc'd a Homily upon the Mystery of the Resurrection. Don Oratio Albani, and Don Annibal his Son, will in a few Days set out for Urbino, to be present at the laying of the first Stone of a new Cathedral Church, which the Pope, to honour the Place of his Nativity, has resolv'd to cause to be built there with great Magnificence. The 7th Instant an extraordinary Congregation of 5 Cardinals was held at the Palace, upon the Arrival of a Messenger from Cardinal Azzalli Legate of Ferrara, with an Account of the Behaviour of the Imperial Troops in the Ferrareze; and 'tis rumour'd, it was resolv'd in that Congregation to give Leave to both Armies to enter that Province, provided they will observe good Order and Discipline. The 9th the same Congregation was assembled again, upon the Arrival of another Messenger from the said Cardinal Legate, who desir'd Instructions what Conduct to follow, the Officers of the Pope's Troops refusing to embroil themselves in any Disputes with the Officers of Foreign Troops without a particular Order from his Holiness. The Pope has resolv'd, that the 10000 Crowns which Prince Pamfilio has given to the Church of St. Peter, shall be laid out towards the Building of a Colledge for the Chinese, Signior Tournon Apostolical Legate in China having Orders to send from thence a good Number of Youths to be educated here. They write from Naples, That the 2 French Regiments which were there having embark'd in 14 Tartans and the Privateer commanded by Pepestumo, sail'd from thence the 7th of this Month for Final.

From the Rotterdam Gazette, May 11.

Rome, April 18. The 14th a Courier from the Duke of Vendome brought Advice to Cardinal Janson and the Duke d' Uzeda Ambassador of Spain, of the Surrender of Verue at Discretion. The same Day an Express arriv'd here from Ferrara, with the News that the Grand

Grand Prior of France being advanc'd near to the Banks of the Po, the Imperialists were retir'd from that River towards the Veroneze. 'Tis reported the Cardinal Legate of Ferrara has sent to thank the Chief Officer of the Imperialists for the good Discipline he made them observe while they were in the Ferrareze; where on the contrary the French have pillag'd several Villages. The 15th the Pope went out of the City to the Church of St. Lawrence, to see a noble Column which Cardinal Ottoboni has newly caus'd to be set up in the Square fronting that Church at very great Expence. A good Number of French Officers have pass'd thro' this Place in their Way from Naples to the Army of the Grand Prior in Lombardy. An Express from Naples has brought Advice, that the Duke d'Escalona Viceroy of the Kingdom of Naples is very dangerously indispos'd. From Malta 'tis advis'd, that 2 French Men of War are arriv'd there, one of which has Orders to cruise in the Archipelago, and the other has on board an Ambassador from the King of France to the Sophy of Persia, to whom he is sent, 'tis said, to regulate some Affairs relating to Commerce.
